PROPOSED ITINERARY

Day 1

Depart Largo in the afternoon overnight travel to the Washington DC area. There will be a stop for dinner on your own along the way.

Day 2

Upon your morning arrival, we will transfer to the Reagan Building for breakfast. Following breakfast, tour the Smithsonian Museum of Natural History and the Museum of American History. After lunch at the Old Post Office Pavilion, our afternoon study sites will consist of a visit to the Holocaust Museum featuring exhibitions portraying the compelling story of the past and offering important lessons about today's world. We will also visit Ford's Theatre and Peterson House as well as the White House area including Lafayette Park and the Ellipse. After dinner our final stop will be the inspirational view from the Iwo Jima Monument.

Day 3

Begin the day with a visit to Mount Vernon. George Washington's home and plantation will showcase life during colonial times, 18th-century treasures, and our first President as a farmer and businessman. In the afternoon travel to Capitol Hill area prior to our tour of the Capitol building. Stops at the Library of Congress and Supreme Court will round out the afternoon as well as the Air & Space Museum. Evening walking tour of the Vietnam and Korean War Memorials, Lincoln Memorial and the Einstein statue.

Day 4

With a theme of "Freedom is not Free", we'll begin our day of study at Arlington National Cemetery. Highlights include: the JFK and RFK gravesites, the powerful experience of the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Space Shuttle Memorials and the Lee Mansion. Following lunch at the Pentagon City Mall, we will visit the National Archives, home of the Bill of Rights, Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States. A stop at the Washington Monument and a visit to the FDR and Jefferson Presidential Memorials will round out the afternoon before departing for home.

Day 5

Arrive in Largo the next morning with a lifetime of memories!
